

"He's doing pretty well with the three R's."

"Readin', ritin' and 'rithmetic?"

"No, readin', rassin' and ragtime."

A ready-looking tramp was once gazing attentively at a display of hats in a shop window. One of them was ticketed—"This also for ten dollars."

"So do I!" said the tramp, and, he turned moodfully away.

W. N. U. 1960

the farthest known star is about 572,675 million miles from the earth.

city man never sees the sights his rural relatives come along point them out.

the inside of the stomach has been carefully photographed for the first by a German doctor.

notable in the history of the bridge was celebrated by more than thousand business men and citizens of Regina, Moose Jaw, and Pon. In the opening ceremony, Hon. Lieut.-Governor H. S. G. Honorable J. G. Gardiner of Saskatchewan, and Hon. J. G. Gardiner, chairman and Canadian National Railways principal parts. The bridge is an imposing structure. There are 50 bridge. The 50 bridge carry railway underneath them from both sides of the bridge. The bridge is short spans (12) quite long spans the main portion aggregate weight is 2,500 tons. This bridge opens Regina about 2,500 ten spans in the foot girders at each traffic only, and the highway converges to the vehicular portion. Two comparative (220 feet each) and six (220 feet) comprise of the bridge. The of steel is approxi- The building of to Moose Jaw and 60 square miles of highway portion of the forms the lower deck. right hand corner. Since is seen cutting the which barred the way as deck, the railway po- bridge. In the lower nor are the men responsible Canadian National Rail- the structure, and on the Walken, bridge engineer National Railway, who able for its design.

Mr. Van der Jones—"Hildas, you to dress this chicken! You mean by leaving this feathers around it?"

Hilda—"Dot's the dress, m."

American films will be barred if plans of a recent mixture merger carry. Only Italian manufacture will be a

...Christmas present when thermometer starts to drop.

Ten to one you never saw a stuntee who waa'n't troubled with digestion.

A rabbit foot may not be lucky,
four of them are a great help to
a rabbit when a dog goes after it.

"How big is your home town, A?"
"Oh, about the size of New York
but it isn't built up yet."

